Privacy Notice

Special Olympics Ireland Website Privacy Policy

1. Introduction

We at Special Olympics Ireland Limited ("We" or "Us" or "Our") respect Your right to privacy and comply with Our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1988 and 2002. The purpose of this Website Privacy Policy is to outline how We deal with any Personal Data You provide to Us while visiting Special Olympics Ireland website (the "Website"). If You are not fully satisfied with this Website Privacy Policy You should not use this Website.

By visiting the Website, You are accepting the terms of this Website Privacy Policy. Any external links to other websites are clearly identifiable as such and We are not responsible for the content or the privacy policies of those other websites. By using this site, You consent to the collection, use and transfer of Your information under the terms of this Website Privacy Policy.

2. Types of Information Collected

We retain two types of information:

- (i) "Personal Data" This is data that identifies You or can be used to identify or contact You and may include Your name, address, email address and telephone number and user IP addresses. Such information is only collected from You if You voluntarily submit it to Us.
- (ii) "Non-Personal Data" Like most websites, we gather statistical and analytical information collected on an aggregate basis of all visitors to Special Olympics Ireland's Website. This Non-Personal Data comprises information that cannot be used to identify or contact You, such as demographic information regarding, for example, user IP addresses where they have been clipped or anonymised, browser types and other anonymous statistical data involving the use of the Website.

3. Purposes for which we hold Your information

Non-Personal Data: We use the Non-Personal Data gathered from visitors to the Website in an aggregate form to get a better understanding of where Our visitors come from and to help Us better design and organise the Website.

Personal Data: We will process any Personal Data You provide to Us for the following purposes: (a) to provide You with the goods You have ordered; (b) to contact You if required in connection with Your order or to respond to any communications You might send to Us.

4. Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

We may provide Non-Personal Data to third parties, where such information is combined with similar information of other users of the Website. For example, We might inform third parties regarding the number of unique users who visit the Website, the demographic breakdown of Our community users of the Website, or the activities that visitors to the Website engage in while on the Website. The third parties to whom We may provide this information may include potential or actual advertisers, providers of advertising services (including website tracking services), commercial partners, sponsors, licensees, researchers and other similar parties.

We will not disclose Your Personal Data to third parties unless You have consented to this disclosure or unless disclosure to the third party is required to fulfil Your order (in such circumstances, the third party is bound by similar data protection requirements). We will disclose Your Personal Data if it is believed in good faith that disclosure is required in order to comply with any applicable law, a summons, a search warrant, a court or regulatory order, or any other statutory requirement.

5. Security

Your Personal Data is held on secure servers hosted by the Special Olympics Ireland's appointed Internet Service Provider. The nature of the internet is such that We cannot guarantee or warrant the security of any information You transmit to Us via the internet. No data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. However, We will take all reasonable steps (including appropriate technical and organisational measures) to protect Your Personal Data.

6. Updating, Verifying and Deleting Personal Data

You may inform Us of any changes in Your Personal Data, and in accordance with Our obligations under the Data Protection Acts 1988 and 2002 We will update or delete Your Personal Data accordingly. To find out what Personal Data We hold or to have your Personal Data updated, amended or removed from Our database, please send your request to info@specialolympics.ie

7. Changes to the Website Privacy Policy

Any changes to the Website Privacy Policy will be posted on the Website so You are always aware of the type of information We collect, how We use it, and under what circumstances, if any, We disclose it. If at any time We decide to use Personal Data in a manner significantly different from that stated in the Website Privacy Policy, or as is otherwise disclosed to You at the time it was collected, We will notify You by email, and You will have a choice as to whether or not We may use Your information in the new manner.
